If someone is in one role and then takes on another, make sure that a new role outline is given for the new role.

PART 2.

- Accountability:

Who is the role directly accountable to for day-to-day purposes:

If the above person is not available (sickness/leave):

- Criminal record check (DBS)

Regulated activity i.e. Enhanced including Barring for children's workforce:

Regulated activity for Adult workforce:

Regulated activity for both workforces:

Enhanced for children's workforce:

Enhanced for adult workforce:

Enhanced for both workforces:

Basic check only – see advice from DSO

No check is needed for this role – seek advice if necessary:

If someone has changed role or has an additional role to another, ensure that consideration has been given to whether the new/additional role requires a new/different DBS check. One will always be required if the new/additional role is a different workforce. Seek advice from the DSO as appropriate and to avoid "boundary drift".

- Lone working considerations

(people who work by themselves without close or direct supervision. This doesn't necessarily mean that the worker is physically alone; it means they are in a separate location to the rest of their team or manager)

Will a lone worker risk assessment needed for this role or do specific issues need to be addressed: YES/NO
